The Social Welfare Latino/a Caucus at UCLA invites workshop submissions to our 13th annual Social Services in the Latina/o Community Conference. The conference will be held Saturday, May 2nd, 2015 from 8AM to 4:30PM. Conference shall include three workshop sessions, 90 minutes long, with the opportunity of presenting at one of those sessions. The Latina/o Caucus conference is the only conference hosted by the UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs that is centered on the distinctive and multifaceted issues faced by the Latina/o community. This year's conference will have a special emphasis on Empowering Latina/o Communities. In addition, the conference will provide a vital platform and space for students from diverse concentrations, professionals and community members to engage in learning and critical dialogue regarding evidence-based and/or community supported solutions. Furthermore we encourage workshops to include didactic content as well as interactive discussion.

Submission Instructions:

Those interested in presenting at the conference, should submit:

- 1) Presenter Name/Title/ Degree
- 2) Institution/Organization
- 3) Workshop Title
